Ana Hughes

Director of Trusts, The Arc of Northern Virginia

Join us for a dynamic breakout session designed to empower individuals, families, and service providers with essential knowledge about the ins and outs of special needs trusts. We'll review how special needs trusts can safeguard assets and provide financial security for individuals with disabilities, as well as provide insights into the various types of special needs trusts, eligibility requirements, and how they can be used to protect individuals' government benefits.

John Shatto

ABLE Ambassador – Maryland
Able

Will share an overview of how ABLE accounts can help people with disabilities and their families to save and invest for the future without jeopardizing federal, state, and local benefits such as SSI and Medicaid. Attendees will learn about tax-advantaged savings and investment options as well as how to use the ABLE account to pay for qualified disability expenses. Join us to learn about the eligibility criteria, enrollment process, features of a Maryland ABLE account and the account management process.
