

A Seminar presented by The Arc of Frederick County

Supported Decision-Making

A fundamental shift in thinking

Supported decision-making can ensure that individuals with disabilities become authors of their own lives and aid them in creating an enviable life. It is also a viable alternative to guardianship.

Thursday, March 30, 2017

6-8:30 PM

Registration: 5:30 PM– 6:15 PM

at

The Arc at Market Street
555 S. Market Street
Frederick, MD 21701

A Light Buffet Will Be Available

Featured Speakers

Stephen Elville, J.D., LL.M. Mr. Elville is the founder of Elville & Associates in Columbia, Maryland. His practice includes working with families of children with special needs.

Megan Rusciano, The Arc of Northern Virginia Megan studied disability rights at American University in the US and the University of Ottawa in Canada. Her work focuses on being a creative ally for people with disabilities.

Please RSVP by email to:

Jean Doyle. jdoyle@arcfc.org

OR

Anjela McNally. amcnally@arcfc.org